

Adtraxion Data

The Adtraxion Data module enables you to insert 'live' data from a database or other link into a playback sequence. This enables you to include items like the latest news or up-to-the-minute stock or price information from the internet or a database, adding to the relevance and interest value of the displays.

